

Artist Statement

As a vocalist, I am influenced by many different artists and styles of music. Music has always been my outlet, allowing me to express myself when words can not. Tasteful and appropriate improvisation and melodic choices are a decision making technique that I challenge myself to work on as an artist and musician. I strive to choose emotion over perfection, I strive to encourage someone with my performance, and I strive to enjoy myself everytime I open my mouth to sing.