

Statement

My work explores celebration of self through sensuality, using frames and transparencies in image making and materials. My work suggests intimate connections and characterize the progression of self-appreciation. Using myself as subject and setting, my work is the relationship between art and artist.