

My art focuses on animation and character designs overall. I mostly work in a digital medium for my work. I make animations that have something to learn or have emotional stories. I stick to fantasy themes and draw in friendly and soft styles and dark and striking styles.